

DLC Training Monthly Newsletter

Welcome to your April newsletter, in this issue we share our latest blog on effective leadership along with a new DLC Training Focus resource providing you with insights into performance reviews.

DLC Training Focus: Performance Reviews

A good performance review is a valuable experience for both the employer and employee, but what should they cover, and how often should you have them? In our latest DLC Focus guide we cover what performance reviews are, and how to get the most from them.

READ MORE

Our Latest Blog Posts

29/04/24

10 Characteristics of Effective Leadership

Effective leadership within the workplace is crucial for the success of a business. But what exactly is...

READ MORE

25/04/24

Disability Confident Employer Status

Almost a quarter of the UK's population is disabled, yet many cannot find work. Disabled individuals...

READ MORE

11/04/24

Provider of Choice for Amazon

This month DLC Training were invited to speak with Amazon associates about their professional development...

READ MORE

Learning at Work Week

As Learning at Work Week 2024 (13th-17th May) approaches, DLC Training will be encouraging you to expand your skillset, nurture curiosity and unlock new avenues for personal and professional growth. Watch your inbox and social media for further information on how we will be supporting individuals and businesses towards greater success.

Your learning and development is our focus

Contact Us

info@dlctraining.co.uk

0800 012 6770

click here to unsubscribe